Human Rights

Dinglasa, Betsie Pearl Rose A.
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

The human rights was important to individual like for example owning a property you've must have a document that you've own that property and you have the right to do what in your property. Example number two, child abuse. The children have the right. We must not abuse them because they have the right to live, to play and to be happy. Someday the children would be the one good example of our county. Example number three.