After watching the film and listening the songs, I feel nothing because I can't understand the lyrics. The sing is full of miseries and memories, so I think I want to give-up.

Seeing our environment worst and earth is worst than before, it is happened because of many factories and overcrowded population.

For me, I think we should avoid throwing garbage and make task force that can protect our environment and make a program about tree planting.