

---

Due to people's neglect and abuse our environment, disaster like, tsunami, flash flood, landslide happened. If only people will be a little careful and have a little concern on our environment, we can prevent this to happen. If only each individual will do their part, like simple things, like throwing garbage properly, not washing water, this will not happen.

---