

After watching the film, I am sad on what is going on right now...very frustrating...

Self discipline is the best way on how to preserve our environment. We are matured enough for us not to know those dos and don'ts. Just cooperate and it will work.

Love our country love our environment. Lets do have care about our home because we belong to our environment we are living in.

---