

After watching the film, I felt sad that earth is suffering much disasters. We should encouraging others to be clean in surroundings, a simple way yet it help.

Each person has there own reason for living. I myself wanted to live long for my family. Work and earn. I think being responsible person for the environment, being clean. Following environmental roles is one big help for the earth. I love my family and I also want them to enjoy good life here on earth.