

After watching the film and listening the songs, the song is very touching, I think we need to discipline first ourself to protect our environment and give help to each other and give peace and love to each other.

Give love, peace to each other help to everyone. Love our environment our country share help to other people, other country. I want peace and heart and change our world.