

After watching the film and listening the songs, I felt the music kind of good and the film is so tragic.

Maybe the people would learn how to protect the environment, learn to love each other. Start to plant a tree and save our environment.

In my own work, I will learn to appreciate the nature, the mother earth. Save energy and must of all to love people.