

After watching the film and listening to the songs, I feel really depressed. Because of the different disasters that is happening on our earth. I think this is happening because also of us people. We cut trees, without planting the new one, throwing garbage anywhere that causes floods. For me I can share only my thoughts on how to save the world, by planting more trees, discipline on throwing garbage try to separate toxic from non-toxic.