

After watching the film and listening the songs, I feel so blessed that I am safe and now I really want to help others in the world.

Seeing our environment and earth is worse than before, I think we should be vigilant and protect the environment.

We should share love, blessing and help people whose in need.

Share your blessings and help other people and cooperate to save the world, environment, be vigilant and love your environment.