

Love

Everyone needs love in this world because that's what makes the world go around. Even living creatures such as plants and animals need special care. If we do not treasure what is important, it will be taken away. that is why we need to be open-minded and always tolerate all people of different race, religion, custom, tradition, etc. Therefore, let us make a commitment to spread love & peace to every part of the world!