

World Peace Start from Individual Love

English Teacher/ Nancy Yu

If a strong body is developed as a result of healthy cells, likewise, a harmonious family is the root of a cooperative society by which a peaceful world can be achieved accordingly to our human being's goal of life- creation and continuation. Therefore, the world should put more respect on the right of individual rather than those famous or powerful politician and state leaders. For one thing, our earth will continue only when every one of us is willing and start to care for the environment we are living in , but not big figures calls on so-called international cooperation in different international forums .

Accurate to say, each creature existing on earth should be valued and protection for his/her right to live a safe life. No strayed dogs and cats should be killed while no natural resources should be overused due to human being's greedy need.

It is surely true that we human being should initiate the spirit of equality.

By doing so, the cell will be healthy and thus the society will be stable following a peaceful world for good. d scarification when it comes to
