When you are by my side - kisslover7777 的網誌 - udn 部落格

The morning sun is rising up on the hills and plains.

The early birds are singing for the happy man.

I ride my bike up and down the hill for a lookout.

This is my land. All Canola are blooming with yellow flowers.

A good omen of harvest is coming because you are in my heart.

We clasp hands to meander along the riverbank until the moon reveals her light behind the trees.

We embrace and kiss in a moon lit autumn. You say you are my lady and I am just your man.

Thanks God for giving me a dream to take her home. This love is mine.

This love is true when you are by my side.
