

CORRUPTION OF MINORS

Monterona, Walter P.
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Corruption of minors are those who shall promote or facilitate the prostitution or corruption of persons under age to satisfy the lust of another, shall be punished by imprisonment and if the suspect is a public officer or employee including those in government or corporation, he shall also suffer the penalty of temporary absolute disqualification. Because of modern technology people are so curious, which leads to doing of crime such as rape.

Corruption of minor is also based on the status of family life. Because some of the parents, they would hurt their children physically. It has been accustomed in the culture of Filipinos in the way of disciplining the children they would hurt the children physically. In some cases, children are involved in selling drugs. They would ask these children to bring drugs to certain people. Cause the authority would never suspect a child bringing drugs.