It was almost a year ago when we heard of this incident, where so many people were killed. The Maguindanao Massacre, the crime of the century. It was the bloodiest crime in the history of the Philippines. It was headed by the well known family in the place, the Ampatuan family. The victims were the supposedly opponent of mayor of the place, which is an Ampatuan, Mangungudatu and some members of the family, supporters and media men. Just because of political rivalry, and the clamor for power, they are ready to kill anyone.
