

HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES

Rudicson C. Paradillo
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

There are some of the people who abuse their rights, and in their lack of discipline in their self. Some of the people are not contented with their lives so they abuse their rights. Some people violate rights because of poverty, problems with their family and problems in the community. Even people from high officials or authorities abuses the rights of other people.

Every human in the world has their rights. These rights and freedoms are given free. As they are born, they already have their rights.