

Human Rights

Al-nashren A. Absari
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City

Human right is simply defined as the rights of every human being or their freedom which is to protect them and not to be abuse by human in nature. As a human, we have our own rights in accordance with to universal and natural law.

We as a Filipino we have the right to refuse in a certain circumstance, if we think that it would cause damage to other people nor to ourselves because we as a human we are protected by law and by our own rights.