“The effect of extrajudicial killing in our society”

The Philippines is a corrupting country and have a lot of wonderful place and lots of different regions but the main problem of the Philippines is the Extra-judicial killing because of the problem of money. Money is the main factor of killing people. The number one crime happening in the Philippines is murder. Other country scared to come to the Philippines because they are afraid of being kill or kidnap them and exchange them in money. Killing is a crime that implement by the police officer.
