Human right is define by the freedom of humans it compose of the right of human. Like freedom, justice and free will. Each and every person must have their human right because in the he first place god created human with free will, humans have their right to live and no one can love it from them. People must live their human right as long as they. For them to fight on what is right and for their conscience to be clean. No can ever dictate a person on what to do as long the person know the thing to do.
