When we speak of human rights, we are dealing with the law of being a human. These are rights and freedoms as we speak. This serves as protection against abuses in our society, wherever you are. Protection against crimes; protect freedoms such as beliefs, religion and expression.

There are still abuses that we can see in our society even there are laws given in our country. One cause of abuses is poverty. People will take advantage or will abuses of one's weaknesses.\ such poverty. They will resort to activities that hinder them from practicing their rights.

How can we prevent these abuses? As a future Law Enforcer, I will do what is right and protect the freedom of the civilians.
