My only concern in Human Rights is in regard to the Police and Military abuses. Base on my observation some of the law enforcement are abusing the people who commit violation, like the police some of them are abusing the tricycle drivers, they charge money to those people. When they ride a vehicle like tricycle they don't pay their fare they will just say that "I am a police." I don't pay anymore, where free to ride. And some of the military are also abusing like in the cabatangan they drive very fast, they don't care to the other vehicle that are also using the road. On my opinion I hope that all law enforcement will not abuse, respect the people around them, and most of all I hope that they will be loyal in the rules and regulation.
