Human rights are the freedom of every human being. Each one of us has rights. There are a lot of cases in our country of human rights abuses. There are rape cases, police brutality, extra judicial killings, child abuse and child labor. These are just some abuses being reported on the news. But sometimes there are cases that no justice given to the victims. How do we avoid this? Respect. We need to respect each other.

In our country human rights, advocate the true meaning of it. It is important that we practice our rights as a citizen of a democratic Philippines. Just imagine if there are no laws that will give us guidance in our country?
