

HUMAN RIGHTS

Mary Rose G. Ampo
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

All people have rights, especially the right to education. All children should be going to school. They have the right how to write and read. This is important factor for them in the future. The government should focus on giving scholarships to indigent children. Not all of the Filipinos have the money for them to send their children to school.