What I know about human rights, these speak all about our obligations. All of us have human rights, our own responsibilities in the society. All of us have rights to do what we want. We have the right to showcase our talents; the right to prove ourselves to other. As what I know about human rights these are all about behavior, our attitude and character of a human.

Human rights tell about our rules and regulations, about our manners and right conduct in the society. It is all about us. When I say rules and regulations, there are certain limitations that come with it. We can't break these. If we do break it, we are already abusing the rights of other people.

We should be always be positive when it comes to rights. Always think good. We have our rights but we don't have the right to take other people's right.
