

Human Rights
Student
Student of Criminology Justice
Universidad de Zamboanga

Human right to adequate legal assistance, the right when under investigation for the offence to be informed of his right to remain silent, rights against the use of torture, force, violence and threat, right against being held in secret, incommunicado or similar forms of solitary detention, the right to bail, the right due process of law, the right to be heard by himself and counsel, the right to know the nature and cause of accusation filed against him, the right to have a speedy, impartial, and public trial, the right to meet the witness face to face with him, the right to know all what all do.