

PEACE AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Rajak, Jul-Asfi J.
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Human rights are rights and freedom of every individual. All of us have freedom to do anything they want to do. As long he is not violating any law, he can do what he wants to do and we can never judge him because that is his right. You can't force someone to do something, especially if it's against the law. They can file case against you. Even children have rights. Children have the right to education.