

POLICE BRUTALITY

Evangelista Jr., Gerardo F.
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Police brutality talks about the act of police officers that's unlawful which violates the rights of the person they arrest, or of prisoners. It's an act that we need to remove in the attitude of police officers which is really disturbing. People who are victims of police brutality can file case against them.

Police officers should know how to follow SOPs on the proper conduct of investigation. And every civilian should know their rights when they are arrested for a crime, innocent or not.