

POLICE BRUTALITY

Herson D. Barbon
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Police brutality is an act wherein police officers purposely use strength and physically hurt other people. Summary execution, false arrest, sexual abuse and torture are some of the cases of police brutality in our country. There was even a video footage of a police brutally torturing the criminal in detention. It has been said that police usually do torturing to criminals, but this time it was videoed.