

POLICE BRUTALITY

Mark Anthony P. Reyes
BS Criminology
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Police brutality is one of the major problems in our country. Summary execution, criminal torture, disappearances, and salvaging; these are some examples of police brutality that is happening in our society.

Police officers use their power to control other people. They feel they are in command of everything. They can forcefully other people to do what they want. Isn't it that police officers should be the one protecting people from danger and crimes? Isn't it their obligations o fight against crimes?