Like when they capture the vendor, they don't respect they are hurting and applying a physical injuries when they also conducting a search warrant. They also destructive the house of the suspect without permit of the owner and another example like what happen in Manila the military was broke in their duty because there are many civilians kill they are brutal.

They don't do their duty to serve and protect the people. As a policeman, we must respect the rights of the civilians . They have right to depend their self in the court.
