

“The Human Rights”

By: Gregorio, Reyner A.
School of Criminology Justice
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Human right is a fundamental rights specially those beliefs to belong to an individual and whose exercise a government may not interfere.

- The right to life
- Freedom from torture and degrading treatment
- Freedom from slavery and forced labor
- The right to liberty
- The right to a fair trial
- The right not to be punished for something that wasn't a crime when you did it.
- The right to respect and conscience and religion
- Freedom to express your beliefs
- Freedom of expression
- Freedom of assembly and association
- The right not marry and start a family
- The right not to discriminate against in respect of these rights and freedom
- The right of peaceful enjoyment of your property
- The right to an education
- The rights to participate in free elections
- The right not to be subjected to the death penalty
- Right to have a privacy
- Freedom of information
- Right to protest
- Making a complaint against private industry
- Making a complaint about a judicial office holder
- Data protection and identity theft
- Right to be presumes innocent.

