The peace and order of every people that they always wish for now is to be always calm in our surroundings. The crime that is always happening in our province, place, or in the entire Philippines, our own country, is declining yet peace is not fully attained.

All people have the rights, right to be acknowledged and other rights of all the times. There's no person dislike peace. We all want peace and have the freedom to exercise our rights. We have our rights to explain and teach the person to be involved in the problem of our country and to our society. For me, being a human we need peace forever in our life. The PEACE is what we always pray to GOD. PEACE forever to remain. All human being upon birth automatically belong to a society. Although born free and equal, everybody needs to abide the law of the land to maintain peace and order. Human rights are generally defined by many sources as those rights, inherent in our nature and we cannot simply live without it as human beings.

The peace and human rights is very important to every person. Everybody feels very nice to hear the word of "PEACE".

Peace is you! You and I do have the human rights. Isn't it? Yes! We have the human rights even in conflicts to the crimes or killings that we can see. For me, as a Filipino citizen in our country, peace is very common to our mind. Actually peace is very important also especially the values of every person. The educated person and not educated person both have their own rights. Everybody have their own rights to reason, to act, to listen, and to give their idea or to give their suggestion. Peace is not only for the Philippines but it is for the whole world. And also the human rights are not for our country but, it is for the whole world also. You or me already knows that the human being is to have their own rights.

The peace starts in the heaven, in our God the next to our home and to the church, and also to our works or to the school or in the whole thing we do, until our death or end of our life past and Peace is still uttered. Peace is never ending as the human rights.
