

Human Rights

Lintasan, Abduljabar
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City

As for the meaning each of us is free to live and to do what is right without abiding the law, but on some way this right is being abuse without exceptions in medical matters. It does not only affect in our country but globally. Furthermore, human rights now being discourage because of people wants and not using their knowledge that would happen to them if they will do it in a wring way.