

Human Rights

Said, Morimona Bin Mohammad J.
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City

Human right is a set of necessary, basic and recognized standard that a person needs to live a life with dignity. He/ she must be recognized as a person must be accepted of who he/she is, respected and enjoy life to the fullest potential.

It is a foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world being aware of our human rights come the responsibility in developing and protecting our dignity and of others.