World Peace, a word that said everything. However, it is Possible? World Peace is possible but almost impossible. We have to create a new World with new human being that they would never fight and they would live as a family, in peace an harmony to finally find the dream of every pacifistic. Peace is the mother of progress. Without peace, a nation cannot make any progress. So peace is very desirable.

World peace is almost impossible because of the money, the power, and the envy between the people.

Money, is the responsible why we do not have peace in the World. In our world is almost impossible to subsist without money. Money is a bad necessary need in our daily life.

The problem is what people do to obtain richness. Money is the responsible for most of the biggest wars.

Another reason that makes World Peace almost impossible is the envy between people. Envy is a killer thing that people have in their minds to destroys other personal life. For example, in the office at work, some people could do everything to makes other people life miserable telling lies to their boss.

The key to have a peaceful world and surroundings is to understand the following behaviors:

- Understanding:

Once people start understanding each other, they would begin developing high viewpoints about the others. Respect and non-interference usually come automatically through understanding.

- Respect:

Respecting other people includes respecting their nature and culture too. The popular belief says if you respect others, others will respect you back. Being patient and understanding every situation in life are the main aspects you should consider to develop maturity in your behavior. This maturity will definitely bring self-respect and will make you value other individuals too.

- Non-aggression:

Keeping your attitude calm and peaceful helps, you maintain that composure which turns your decision making into extremely non-aggressive. It is crystal clear that harsh speech and insulting words always bring quarrels and conflicts. To reduce such conditions, people should avoid anger and hatred towards other religions, cultures, civilizations, states and countries.

- Non-interference:

“Mind your own business” just suits this topic. It does not mean that you should not help others in their difficulties and keep yourself tied to your environment.

Everybody should mix up with the world, but at the same time, it is vital not to interfere into others’ work, cultural habits, religious matters, properties and daily life.

- Equality:

This is the most important thing to understand. Being polite and behaving well with others never hurts. Considering everyone equal should be the main aspect explained in a Peace Essay. God is one and all religions preach the same.

In this fast developing world, a person does not have his own peace of mind; how is he supposed to contribute to the world peace? It is necessary to first have peace inside yourself and your home. This will naturally allow you to be serene and peaceful in the outside world too. Peace is something everyone wants, but no one exactly knows how to achieve it. Writing Peace Essays is easy while connecting with people and making them appreciate such essays is much difficult.
