

War in Basilan

By: Sababan, Jubair

Department of Civil Engineering
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

When we heard Basilan what comes to our mind is that the war between Muslim rebels and soldiers. When I was in Basilan. I witnessed the treatment of the soldiers to civilian particularly to Muslims. When Military men conducted operation, they just pull men not having evidence if that were really the criminals. I think they had violated the civilian rights. There are so many circumstances that the military violates the human rights. The victims of these wars are really the civilian, both Christian and Muslims.