The environment where we stand is in danger because of human abusing or cutting down the trees and digging the ground and make them houses of human and these is why mother needs our help we must clean the environment and we must plant trees and never cut down trees and tell them they will not dig the ground and mother earth is save cause we live on mother earth we are responsible for mother earth is the cause why we live here without mother earth we are not here and thanks to mother she gave us shelter, food, and other stuff we need and we must care for mother earth and we will be many cause of mother earth and the first human being in earth thanks for there help because of them we live in earth without mother earth we cannot survive in the hot sun that's why gave us shelter and cannot survive without food that's why mother earth bring food to earth. And laughed at the concentration but the genie escaped with his halo of riddles. I pondered a new and unslept.

Thoughts were strange with the strangeness of new towns. Thoughts were as vast as the unvialed GOD I could not bottle nor battle him, there: I saw him mark in the mutational mist I surrendered.
