

Should We Respect Human Right?

By: Rayhana I. Apion
Technical High School
Universidad de Zamboanga,
Zamboanga City Philippines

The government is generally respected the human rights of the citizens. Although there are many problems and cases that happens in our country like the harsh prison conditions, abusing prisoners by the prison guards, and also some civilians are the victims of improper police conduct like the some civilian Muslims, there are lots of Muslim civilians are victim of pointed by the other people that they are abu sayyafs. Those civilian Muslims are so pitiful because once they caught either they are forever in jail or it is hard for them to save themselves and their family cannot do anything, even if they spend a lot of money and the saddest part there sometimes they are maltreated by the prison guards inside the prison or jail so that they will confess that they are member of the Abu Sayyaf even if they are not. And maybe this is the reason why some Muslims are involved in kidnapping maybe because this is their only way to revenge.

The prison guards sometimes physically abuse and torture those prisoners. It remains a problem if those prison guards are being abused those prisoners inside the jail maybe because some of the prison guards do not respect those prisoners. Even though those prisoners made a mistake, they should not be abused or tortured, because those people have their own human rights and they should be respected and not be mistreated.

Even though there is peace between the government and the communist opposition stalls, human rights violations still continues in the country. This is because there are many prisoners who are mistreated and tortured by the prison guards inside the prison.

I know all of us have conscience that makes us realize what wrong and right and also how to respect the rights of the other people.