Student has many rights to enjoy. This right is given in order to do things freely by them. With this right, the students can use this right anytime when they need it. These rights are the following: to express their ideas and thoughts to the officials, right to express their emotions in terms of teaching strategies, rights to give feedbacks to the activities of the school, rights to vote leaders in the campus and lastly right to interact with the members of the faculty and etc. In general, it is very important to the student to have rights because it is only way to encourage them to study more with respect of everyone who contribute with it. Without this right the students can no longer do things freely and this results to a low comprehension of a student.

As a student, I am going to exercise these rights by convincing everyone who are students also to make strong bonds with others. In this way, there are possibilities that these rights may not be violated with others or take advantage. I am also going to do things, for even we have this right, we must not take advantage of this right for it is not good for us.
