It is because of many reasons and one of the reason is, the world is too wide to explore, we people don't have to know everything but at least we people must have knowledge to be applied in this world wide of ours, we must know how to take care of our environment and to come up with something useful to us and that can bring us to a modern world. And as we can see the situation of today generation we can say that if we know nothing then we can't attain anything. Being just practical is one good example to us, if we think education is our key to a good future then why not make a way just to be in school. Poverty is never a hindrance to one's success. Human has the right to know things in school, the lessons in school, the people to mingle in school, the values that are to be learned in the school. Parents are serious to be our guardians and supporters, and if you think your parents can't do it for you then you, yourself can make a way. Always remember that "Education is the key to your future". Even professional people still go on schooling to learn more than why not all of us go to school and learn, and to prepare yourself in facing the good life that is waiting for you.
