Peace? When we can achieve this? A lot of people dream about this and wishing to have this in our country. How can we achieve this dream in our country? Is it possible or impossible? Well, it's just depending to the people on how they can handle or manage this. Our community has only one aim is to bring peace in our society. How we supposed to contribute to have peace in this country?

Peace is a state of harmony between people and also the state of calmness. Without peace there is no harmony. Every one of us should desire peace in our society, but as we can observe now a days there is no peace that's why the whole human race destroyed. We should stop foolishness that can lead us to make wars. We should think and start for a change that enable achieved peace in our society. Peace begins with us. I mean in our selves. If anyone of us tries to live a peaceful life we can achieve peace that we truly aim for. We can also achieve peace in our society if when we shared the thoughts of peace which that peace is the more important in our lives. We want peace to be important goal and valued in our society now. We are calling for our brothers and sisters to have a mutual respect for one another's integrity for us to have peace. If you respect others, others will much respect you too. Being patient and understanding every situation in our life are the main aspects that you should consider to develop our maturity in our behavior. And every individual should be treated equally. And with this we can achieve our aim to have peace. Avoid the harsh speech and insulting words which bring it to quarrels and conflicts to anyone. Just remember that you should start the peace within yourself and in your home and this will allow you to bring serene and a peacefully.

If we really want peace there is always a peace. Peace is a process of life which frame in our minds and it begins with us on how we act, how we treat our families, friends and our neighbors and how can we find way to resolve out problems in our life. "Peace is something everyone wants, but no one exactly knows to achieve it"
