

“How to save our Environment”

Aradani, Sitti Wannor G.
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City

Every individual in this world was born having its own unique characteristic and had given their own right in living in the democratic country. We also have the freedom to speak out but some human rights was not been recognize by other people especially the poor.

Human rights should be applicable to everyone in this world. Whether they are rich or poor. No discrimination should be done because each of us burn to have equal human rights.