

Human Rights

Charmaine Bejerano
Certificate in Respiratory Therapy
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

People of the Philippines have its own human rights also known as the law. It is used to deliver peace to each of us. Human rights are the rights of the people who abuse them; they can have their rights because government has established this law.

One of the rights of the people is the right to have privacy because all of us have the right. Even hospitals and patients have their own rights.