

Human Rights

Marha Adam

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

School of Allied Medicine

Universidad de Zamboanga

Zamboanga City, Philippines

All countries around the world need human rights to save those who are abused by their country and countrymen. But then some countries human rights is not a priority to implement.

The human rights in the Philippines are not well implemented. Human rights differ between the rich and the poor. The poor people and children are more abused and are discriminated by the rich ones.

I hope this new administration will find a way to be fair to everyone.