As a student, we ought to be aware that the society nowadays is bound to be drastic and chaotic despite of all the influences that the society has been showing. Curiosity and awareness would always voice out to the people practicing their rights as individuals and citizens. Yet, human rights have been following some of the laws that the authority has amended and declared. Mass media helps people from giving the people the chance to voice out their concerns.

Human rights have always been misunderstood because most of the people use their power and take advantage. Unknowingly, there are also people who are not aware of the risks and benefits of human rights.
