

Peace

Abujain M. Halaptu
Certificate in Respiratory Therapy
School of Allied and Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga

For me, peace is very important to us because if there is no peace, our country will not improve. To improve peace in our country, we need to help other people and develop and create activities in our communities so that other people will cooperate and help each other in such activities.