

“World Peace”

Sali, Sitti Uaira
School of Allied Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City

For me world peace means that is a world without war and a place that live peacefully. In now days, world peace is not actually not maintaining, because of earth people anger, hatred and jealousy towards other, this means no persons have contentment of which they have.

In the Philippines, especially in Mindanao we have this not yet controlled war, because of terrorism. Actually even in other country like Iraq children and women are suffering because of this.