

Development

Nurhana M. Lim

Bachelor of Science in Respiratory Therapy

School of Allied and Medicine

Universidad de Zamboanga

The Philippines needs development because among all Asian countries, we are one of the poorest. To achieve development first, corruption must be avoided by the government and Filipinos must learn how to become an entrepreneur to help boost the country's economy.