

Human Rights
Sherry Fie J. Jalali
Certificate in Respiratory Therapy
School of Allied and Medicine
Universidad de Zamboanga

Human rights are defined as the right of every person in terms of education, freedom and so on. Every person has right even children. To fully understand, people must know their rights as Filipino citizens since there are different aspects of human rights.