

World Peace

Omar M. Tandih

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

School of Allied and Medicine

Universidad de Zamboanga

World peace is very essential to every human being and also to the animals. If we have peace, the human being peacefully exists with his environment including animals. We must have a good relationship with our country and the world and must be a priority. It is not just for the sake of human beings but also for our mother nature.