

Ending One's Life is a Human Right?

April May S. Short

Universidad de Zamboanga
Zamboanga City, Philippines

Certain circumstances that happen in our everyday life. Decisions were made to make this crucial thing that changes the lives of the people behind it. On a positive way of defining it, is being brave of letting go of someone you love an example of this is Euthanasia or Mercy Killing. It is done by a family or a relative that has a patient suffering from severe disease. The second is the Self Defense, defending oneself from danger; probably death may occur in this scene. In its negative side, The Catholic church has a big NO for this agenda. It's against their will and in their beliefs. Most specifically the Bible says we don't have the right to kill somebody. In the human cycle, Death is the last stop of a man in which that his journey has been finished here on earth.

This article enlightens our minds and hearts to the possible things that may happen in the future. It says the advantages and disadvantages of it to us. But one thing is for sure: We have been created by GOD, we should live according to his will and words. Being the highest form of animal we had the ability to think of what's good in u, to know what is right and wrong. Most especially to know our rights as a student, as a person, and as a citizen of this institution. It's a decision to make it defers in the situation that has been incurred. It's a battle between the principle and conscience. The power to think is being given to us but we should know our limitations. It is a debatable topic that interests me to give my opinion and ideas. It is a question that braves a man if he does. We do live in a purpose and ending a life may do so. No one is exempted on the punishments, maybe not here on earth but on up above. It covers the sides of the religion and the government itself. One of these issues is Death Penalty that has been solved by the past few years. The victims of it are the innocent ones. We people should be careful with our moves and be ready to the consequences that will be given to us. This article is just a light speak of the violations that we are going through.